

It's a sensitive document SHRED-FEST at Madison Public Library!

Bring in your confidential documents (up to 5 bags or boxes) and watch them be destroyed by a shredding truck in the library parking lot, courtesy of Access Information Management and the Wisconsin Office of Privacy Protection.

May 2, 10am-2pm, Alicia Ashman Branch, 733 N. High Point Rd.

May 4, 10am-2pm, Lakeview Branch, 2845 N. Sherman Ave.

May 5, 10am-2pm, Pinney Branch, 204 Cottage Grove Rd.

Inside the branches at these same times, staff from the Wisconsin Office of Privacy Protection will be on hand to answer questions and provide information about how consumers and businesses can protect privacy and reduce the risk of identity theft.

Office of Privacy Protection staff (but not shredding trucks) will also be available at these times and locations:

May 3, 10am-2pm, Hawthorne Branch, 2707 E. Washington Ave.

May 4, 10am-2pm, Meadowridge Branch, 5740 Raymond Rd.

May 5, 10am-2pm, Central Library, 201 W. Mifflin St.

May 6, 10am-2pm, Sequoya Branch, 4340 Tokay Blvd.
